

Fairfax County Retired Educators
2010 Revision of 2008 Revision
Fairfax County Retired Educators, Inc.
Bylaws

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of the organization shall be the Fairfax County Retired Educators, Inc., hereafter referred to as "the Association." The Association shall be incorporated as a 501 (c) (7) non-profit corporation incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. The principal office of the Corporation shall be located in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSES

Section 1. The Association is operated solely for the benefit of its members. All funds shall be used to further the purposes stated herein.

Section 2. The purposes of the Association shall be:

- A. To assist retired and active education employees in maximizing retirement benefits and opportunities;
- B. To promote the social, professional, educational, and economic welfare of retired school employees;
- C. To engage in legislative projects to protect and improve retirement benefits;
- D. To meet with members for the exchange of ideas and information of common interest;
- E. To support future educators by a scholarship fund; and
- F. To organize activities of interest for members.

ARTICLE III – GOVERNANCE

The Association shall be governed by its own officially adopted Bylaws.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

There shall be two categories of membership:

Section 1. ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP: Active membership shall be open to all retired personnel of education systems.

Section 2. ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP: Associate membership shall be open to any family member or friend of present and former FCRE members on the payment of prescribed dues. Associate members shall be recommended by active members.

ARTICLE V – DUES

- Section 1. Annual and multiple-year dues for all categories of membership shall be determined by the Board of Directors no later than February 15 and approved by the members at the next-to-last general membership meeting of the fiscal year.
New members, who join in their first year of retirement, shall pay no annual dues for that first year.
- Section 2. In order to maintain the benefits of membership, continuing members shall pay current dues no later than August 31.
- Section 3. Dues of first time members received by the treasurer within three months of the end of the fiscal year (i.e., on or after April 1) shall be credited to the following fiscal year.

ARTICLE VI – FINANCE

- Section 1. The fiscal year of the Association shall begin July 1 and end on June 30 of the following year.
- Section 2. The Association shall provide for such audit and control of its finances as are necessary for their complete accounting and safekeeping within three (3) months of the closing of the fiscal year.
- Section 3. A recommended annual budget for the next fiscal year shall be prepared by the Treasurer with advice and consent of the Budget and Finance Director and shall be presented to the Executive Committee at the next-to-last meeting of the current fiscal year. After passing the Executive Committee, the budget shall be presented at the Board of Directors at the next-to-last Board of Directors meeting for the current fiscal year.
- Section 4. After the Board of Directors has reviewed, modified, and accepted the recommended budget, the budget document will be presented at the final general membership meeting of the current fiscal year for a vote of Association members.

ARTICLE VII - NOMINATING COMMITTEE

- Section 1. The Nominating Committee shall include five (5) to seven (7) members elected by the general membership. The selection of nominees to this committee will take place during the business portion of the second membership meeting of the year.
- Section 2. Nominations for election of committee members shall be made from the floor, provided the individual has agreed to be nominated.
- Section 3. If five to seven people are nominated from the floor, the president may entertain a motion that the five to seven nominees be elected by acclamation.
- Section 4. If more than seven people are nominated for this committee, the election of the seven members will be held at the business portion of the third membership meeting of the year.
- Section 5. The president of the Association will meet with the Nominating Committee and name one member of the committee as chairman and instruct the committee in its duties.
- Section 6. The Nominating Committee shall prepare a slate of nominees to be presented at third-from-last general membership meeting prior to the end of the fiscal year. Other nominations may be made from the floor at that meeting provided prior consent of the nominee has been obtained. The slate of nominees shall also be published in a newsletter prior to the next-to-last general membership meeting.

ARTICLE VIII - ELECTIONS AND TERMS OF OFFICE

- Section 1. The officers of the association shall be president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, past president, and president-elect. Every other year there will be a past president or a president-elect.
- The president and treasurer shall serve a two-year term. The vice president and secretary shall serve a one-year term. In the first year of the president's term, a president-elect shall be nominated and elected. The person elected president-elect shall serve one year as president-elect, two years as president, and one year as past president.
- Section 2. In any year in which there is only one nominee for each elected FCRE office, the Board of Directors shall recommend acceptance of the slate of candidates by acclamation at the second-from-last general membership meeting of the fiscal year.
- Section 3. Elections, in which there is more than one candidate for any office, shall be conducted by mail ballot included with the newsletter published prior to the next-to-last general membership meeting of the fiscal year.
- Section 4. All officers shall take office on July 1. The current president-elect shall move into the office of president and then shall serve for a period of two years. The person elected as treasurer shall serve for two years.
- Section 5. In the event the office of president should become vacant, the newly elected vice president shall become president for the unexpired portion of the term.
- Section 6. In the event an officer is incapacitated or fails to perform the duties of office, a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Board of Directors will remove that officer for cause.
- Section 7. The Board of Directors shall have the power to fill any other vacancies by a simple majority vote.

ARTICLE IX - OFFICERS

The elected officers of the Association shall be president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, past president, and president elect. At the conclusion of the two year term, the president will serve one year as past president.

The election of Treasurer, Vice President, Secretary, and President Elect shall occur in odd numbered years (for example: 2011- nominated in 2010, elected in 2011). In even numbered years, only the Vice President and Secretary shall be elected (for example: 2012). A Vice President and a Secretary will be elected every year.
